VANCOUVER VOLCANOES ADD THREE PLAYERS TO 2007 ROSTER

Vancouver, WA—The Vancouver Volcanoes has announced that three players have joined the team for the 2007 International Basketball League season. The Volcanoes are pleased to welcome Nick Fusare, Donny Woods, and Quincy Byas to the roster.

Fusare, 7'0", attended Linfield College, where he is the Wildcats' career leader in blocked shots.

Woods, 6'5", earned second-team All-American honors at Warner-Pacific. As a senior, Woods averaged 16.1 points per game, while leading the Knights in rebounds, assists, blocks and steals.

Byas, 6'4", was a standout at Denmark Technical College before coming to the Volcanoes.

Vancouver Volcanoes Head Coach John Phillips—"This is a solid group. Nick will be a tremendous asset at the defensive end, and Donny and Quincy are really dynamic players."

The Volcanoes kick off the 2007 IBL season with a trip to the Stott Center to face the Portland Chinooks on Sunday, March 11.

About the IBL

Two unique features distinguish the IBL from other professional basketball leagues:

- 1. An entertaining game. By allowing only one timeout per quarter, and reducing the time between plays with an immediate inbounds policy, IBL games are always fast and entertaining. IBL teams average 127 points per contest; just as important—games last only two hours.
- 2. Extremely low travel costs. The IBL promises a maximum of one trip per season requiring air travel. This 'one flight guarantee' that teams enjoy promotes financial health and longevity for IBL teams. In fact, all 17 teams completed the first IBL season (the 2005 season); as well, all 24 teams completed the 2006 season.

The IBL is now heading into the third year of play with tip-off in mid March of 2007. For more information, photos and videos about IBL teams and/or the IBL itself, visit the league web site www.iblhoopsonline.com
